

PRIVACY POLICY

This webpage describes the privacy policy of GRS Engineering Pvt. LTD (hereafter referred to as "GRS") regarding information received by GRS during your visits to our Website. The amount and type of information received depends on how you use the site. These privacy provisions apply solely to GRS's online information collection activities and are not applicable to information collection practices GRS may be engaged outside this website.

By using this site, you signify your assent to the GRS Online Privacy Policy. If you do not agree to this policy, please do not use this site. GRS reserves the right to change any of GRS's Online Privacy Policy at any time without notice.

No Representation or Warranty:

Your confidential use of this site cannot be guaranteed by GRS. GRS shall not be responsible for any harm that you or any person may suffer as a result of a breach of confidentiality in respect to your use of this site or any information you transmitted to this site.

Normal Website Usage:

You can visit GRS's website to read product information or use our online tools without telling us who you are and without revealing any personal information. The only information GRS collects and store during normal Website usage is the name of your Internet service provider, the browser (including available plug-ins and browser functionality) and type of machine you are using, the IP address, the Website that referred you to us, the pages you request and the date and time of those requests.

GRS uses this information to generate statistics and measure site activity to improve the usefulness of customer visits. During normal Website usage, GRS does not collect or store personally identifiable information such as name, mailing address, e-mail address or phone number, except in following events.

Collection of Personally Identifiable Information:

There are instances where GRS requests personally identifiable information to provide the Website visitor a service or correspondence (alerts, promotions and mailed brochures). This information, such as name, mailing address, e-mail address, type of request and possibly additional information, is collected and stored by GRS in a manner appropriate to the nature of the data and is used to fulfill your request. The information you provide is used by GRS to improve the services provided to you. It is never provided to any other company for that company's independent use. GRS will never sell your personal information to any other company.

Use of Cookies:

Cookies are pieces of information that a Website transfers to an individual's hard drive for record-keeping purposes so that GRS may track site and user activity. The use of cookies is an industry standard and you will find them at most major Websites. By showing how and when visitors use the site, cookies help GRS to track those areas of our site that are popular and which areas are not. Many improvements and updates to the site are based on such data as total number of visitors and pages viewed.

Most browsers are initially set to accept cookies. If you'd prefer, you can set yours to refuse cookies or to alert you when cookies are being sent. However, it is possible that some parts of the site will not function properly if you do so. Also, GRS will not be able to recognize you as a visitor over time.

Third-Party Advertising Company:

GRS may share Website usage information about visitors to our Website with a reputable third-party advertising company for the purpose of targeting our internet banner advertisements on this site and other sites. For this purpose, GRS and GRS's third-party advertising company may note some of the pages you visit on GRS's Website through the use of pixel tags (also called clear gifs). The information collected by our third-party advertising company through the use of these pixel tags is not personally identifiable.
